

Dr. Mark Jaffe is board certified in general and forensic psychiatry by the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology and is a Diplomate of the American Board of Addiction Medicine. He graduated from UCLA cum laude before attending the University of Southern California School of Medicine.

Dr. Jaffe completed his internship and residency in psychiatry at the Los Angeles County + USC Medical Center and completed two years of fellowship training at the USC Institute of Psychiatry and Law, where he is currently a clinical associate professor of psychiatry. Additionally, Dr. Jaffe consults for the Los Angeles County Superior and Municipal Courts and is a member of the expert witness panel. He has performed numerous evaluations for various agencies, courts and attorneys on cases that involve the use of drugs and alcohol during the commission of crimes or during employment.

Dr. Jaffe has a passion for integrating his practice of psychiatry medicine into the residential treatment space and has held the position of both Medical Director and Staff Psychiatrist at a few, select treatment facilities. Specifically, the ability to collaborate with recognized, multi-disciplinary clinical teams is an area of interest for Dr. Jaffe.
