

It was developed from his experience as a diversion counselor, he saw the need for in-home intervention solutions. Ed is honored to have choreographed thousands of interventions internationally.