

Additionally, Lee's work as an interventionist has been showcased on A&E's hit show Intervention. Lee pioneered and continues to work with a nonprofit treatment center for women in Nepal. Lee's unique skills and efforts have demonstrated her talent and dedication to advancing recovery both on a local and international level. MS. FitzGerald has relationships with many treatment centers nationwide.