

Patricia Pike, LAADC, ICAADC, CADC-II, CIP & CCIP

Patricia Pike advocates for the high standards of professionalism essential for practicing interventionists and those aspiring to become Certified Intervention Professionals (CIP). We urge you to take advantage of the chance to learn from industry leaders and start your path to becoming a CIP.

Our intervention training provides a comprehensive curriculum and manual, encompassing theories and practices of intervention, family systems, ethics, and crisis intervention strategies, among others. Our instructors are well-educated experts who address a broad spectrum of subjects, such as substance abuse disorders, behavioral addictions, trauma-informed approaches, and mental health conditions.

Our intervention training aims to enrich, inspire, and educate healthcare professionals, thereby raising the standard of care for individuals struggling with substance abuse disorders and complex mental health issues, as well as providing support for their families.

Patricia M. Pike, also known as Patti, is the CEO of CanAm Interventions and a Certified Intervention and Addiction Specialist with over 25 years of experience in the field of behavioral health, specializing in addiction and alcoholism treatment.

Ms. Pike holds a master's accredited certification in addiction studies and has conducted successful interventions both nationally and internationally. She is a Licensed Advanced Alcohol Drug Counselor (LAADC), Certified Alcohol and Drug Counselor (CADC-II), a member of the Canadian Addiction Counselors Certification Federation, an International Certified Alcohol and Drug Counselor through the IC&RC (I.C.A.A.D.C), a Certified Intervention Professional (CIP) accredited by the Pennsylvania Certification Board, a Canada Certified Intervention Professional (CCIP), and possesses an Adult Instructor Diploma (AID) from Simon Fraser University.

Dedicated to supporting professionals in the fields of addiction and mental health, Ms. Pike has facilitated intervention trainings in Canada and the U.S., helping many to become certified intervention professionals. She is a board member of the Association of Intervention Specialist (AIS), where she advocates for elevated standards among professional interventionists. With dual citizenship in the U.S. and Canada, Patricia brings a unique professional perspective, implementing evidence-based best practices across both nations.
