

All About EYES®

PROFILE

Dr. Lewis was born in Camden, NJ, and was raised in the DC, Maryland, and Virginia area. He graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and was most influenced to become an Optometrist by Dr. John Bonsett-Veal. When asked why he chose to practice in Illinois, Dr. Lewis stated, "As a Big Ten graduate, I have always enjoyed the feel and community of a Big Ten college town. It was vital for me to find a home where the company cared as much about the community as I did. All About Eyes became my desired workplace because the doctors and leadership have always prioritized the patient."

BOARD MEMBER FEATURE: JEFFREY MARK LEWIS, O.D.

AWARDS

---

Ambassador for national public awareness campaign – Optometry Gives Me Life

WHAT HE LOVES MOST ABOUT HIS JOB

---

"The interactions and bonds we form with our patients are priceless."

UNUSUAL OR SURPRISING DIAGNOSIS

---

"Salzmann's Nodular Degeneration"

ADVICE FOR NEW OPTOMETRISTS

---

"Challenge yourself regularly with professional development education and travel to various optometric conferences."

HOBBIES

---

"I'm a voracious reader. My wife and I also own an entertainment company. We enjoy helping to plan and participate in events for our community."