

MUSIC MINISTRY MINUTE – DECEMBER MEETING HOUSE TIMES

'Tis the season! Advent and Christmas is the time for great celebration and what better way to celebrate than with great music!

Our traditional Christmas concert is Sunday, December 11 at 3:00 pm. The program includes the Bell Choir, soprano Andrea Bargabos, tenor Deryl Godshall, the Adult Choir and brass players from the Salisbury Sinfonietta. And you, the audience are invited to join on traditional carols. The concert is free and made possible with funds from the Albert Sly Music Fund. Donations to this fund are welcome to help us continue free concerts.

The Salisbury Sinfonietta and Sing Out! CT are presenting Menotti's famous Christmas opera Amahl and the Night Visitors on Saturday, December 17 with performances at 5:00 pm and 7:00 pm. This production is fully-staged with orchestra, sets and costumes. The opera is 58 minutes long and ideal for children of all ages. Children and youth are free; donations from adults are welcome.

The annual Chorus Angelicus concert is on Sunday, December 18 at 4:00 pm. Tickets are available on the Chorus Angelicus website.

Join us on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day for many of your favorite Christmas Carols.

Blessings, Jack
