

Lenten Learning Series

The Lenten Season, in the Christian tradition, is a journey of 40 days to prepare for the coming of Easter. It is a time of self-examination and reflection as we anticipate the Resurrection. During Lent, the Salisbury Congregational Church is hosting a series of learning opportunities to inform and explore the history of the church (Rev. Dr. Richard Reifsnyder), one's spirituality (Rev. Ryan Gackenheimer), and the role of music in worship (Dr. Jack Bowman). A special presentation will address spiritual encouragement for individuals, congregations, and communities (Rev. Dr. Donna Schaper). The sessions are on Sunday afternoons, from 2:00 to 4:00, on March 5, 12, 19, and 26 (from 3:00 to 5:00). Light refreshments will be served; child care will be provided (please call the Church Office at 860-435-2442). Each presentation is free and open to the public.

Website: Salisburycongregationalchurch.org;

Facebook: Congregational Church of Salisbury, UCC.

For further information, call Rev. Diane Monti-Catania at the Church Office.