Okaloosa County School District Announces Graduation Ceremonies for the Class of 2025

The Okaloosa County School District is excited to announce the schedule for the 2025 graduation ceremonies, which will celebrate the achievements of our high school seniors. These milestones mark the culmination of years of hard work and dedication, and we are proud to share in the moment with our students, families, and the community. All ceremonies will be streamed live, allowing family and friends to participate virtually in this momentous occasion. The links to each live stream are provided below:
