Live #2 – QUAIL HUNT – You and a guest will enjoy one fully guided half day quail hunt for two hunters. Dorchester Shooting Preserve offers more than 5,000 acres of pristine quail habitat in Midway, GA. The property has been managed for more than ten years, offering early released fast-flying birds. Dorchester supplements its own wild bird population seasonally, giving hunters the best flying birds possible. As a wing-shooter, you know that a personable, skilled and safe guide can make all the difference in your day in the field. Dorchester guides have years of hunting experience and possess the skills and know-how to ensure you have a quality experience. The hunts are designed to accommodate two hunters per guide and hunt buggy to optimize your time in the field.

Well-trained retrievers and pointers are a source of pride at Dorchester. Young, healthy, enthusiastic dogs make the day even more enjoyable as you walk behind these agile hunters. Guests are welcome to bring their own well-trained, professional hunting dogs to their own hunts. The package includes the harvest of 16 quail, with additional quail available for purchase. (Valid 10/1-12/15/18)
