

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Welcome Our New Sexton!

We’re very excited to welcome Chuck Guillotte as our newest Sexton for the Cathedral. Chuck is originally from Providence, R.I. and is an artist and an avid reader. He comes to us with a background in security and hospitality. Also, he’s a volunteer at the Balboa Park rose garden. Please make Chuck feel welcome if you see him around campus.

Stay Up-to-Date with News and Announcements

You may have noticed that we made some changes to our communications. If you want to know what’s happening here, be sure to read The Cathedral Life and the eBulletin. The Cathedral Life, which you are holding now, is distributed on Sundays and focuses on the next three weeks, plus some “save-the-dates.” Our weekly email is sent on Thursday afternoons and focuses mostly on the next 10 days. It also includes a link to the Cathedral Life. Both are archived on our website (stpaulcathedral.org/news) so you can always access them and find out what is coming up here at the Cathedral.

The Floor Project Is Underway

For the next few weeks, the floor in the Cathedral’s nave, transept, and chapel is undergoing restoration. We will tackle the project in sections, and the technicians will minimize dust, so the air quality should not be affected. This project is made possible mostly by the generosity of a cathedral member who wishes to remain anonymous.

Have You Seen Our New Sculpture in the 6th Ave Courtyard?

The statue is a bronze Pieta ‘Mother and Child’ and was donated by Mrs. Laura Fernandez MacGregor Maza. The artist is Victor Hugo Castaneda. His father was also a famous sculptor. The donor’s preference is for the beauty of the piece to be shared with the current members and visitors of the church for generations to come.

O clemens, O pie, O dulcis Jesu, Fili Mariae. Hail, thou most true Body, of the Virgin Mary born for all, Thou who truly hung on the cross, Thou whose sacred side was wounded, from whence the streams did flow; be to us the fore taste as we ponder our mortality. Can it be Christ our Lord who died, risen now from the grave and seated at the right hand of God the Father and for us makes intercession? Alleluia. [Romans 8:31-34]
