Peacemaker from El Salvador

Milagro: María del Milagro Mejía de Flores is a Salvadoran theologian, lawyer, and ordained deaconess in the Calvinist Reformed Church of El Salvador (IRCES). She is a founding member of the church, where she has supported various ministries, including the education programs, migration programs, and peace processes in El Salvador following the civil war.

Peacemaker from Greece

Efi: Psychologist and human rights activist Efi Latsoudi is one of the founders of Lesvos Solidarity, a grass-roots organization based on Lesvos Island in Greece. She was also the coordinator and founder of the first open, independent welcoming shelter (Pipka Camp) for refugees fleeing to Greece primarily from Africa and the Middle East. Pipka Camp operated for 8 years, until it was forcibly closed by the Greek authorities in October 2020. Lesvos Solidarity's beneficiaries are among the most vulnerable refugees hosted in camps across Lesvos, including people who suffer from serious medical conditions, victims of torture and violence, large families with children, pregnant women, newborns, LGBTQIA+ persons, single adults, and victims of shipwrecks who lost loved ones at sea. Efi is also a filmmaker who has created short documentaries and films and written scripts for fiction films. She holds degrees from the University of Athens, School of Philosophy, the University of Picardi-Jules Vernes in Maitrise de Psychology Clinic and the University of Paris.

Migrant Shelter Director in Agua Prieta

Betto: Adalberto Ramos, originally from Michoacan, Mexico, is the director of the Centro de Recursos para Migrantes (Migrant Resource Center) and the Centro de Atención al Migrante "Exodus" (CAME Migrant Shelter). He is an ardent defender of the human rights of persons who are migrating and those seeking asylum. He lives in Agua Prieta with his wife and daughter.
