Homebound

Carnival is coming up on Sunday, September 27. Please join us for games, silent auction and food 11-2pm.

Chapel theme t-shirts have arrived! Please have your child wear their shirts on Wednesdays.

2026-27 Lunch: Lunch statements will be sent home weekly. You may send a check/cash to the school office designated for lunch or your may pay online at trinitywausau.org, using the give button. Lunch accounts should not have a negative balance. If a lunch account hits a -$20 balance, your child will need to bring a cold lunch until the account has a positive balance.

Appointments during the school day: If your child has an appointment and needs to be picked up during the school day, please notify the office on the morning of that day either by email or phone.

Chapel Offerings for the 1st quarter are going to: The Lutheran Early Response Team (LERT) is part of the LCMS Disaster Response ministry, which addresses both natural and man-made disasters. LERT volunteers assist communities by providing emergency relief, rebuilding support, and pastoral care, while also sharing Christian care and compassion with those affected lcms.org+2. The program operates through LCMS congregations, districts, and partnerships with international Lutheran churches.
