

Homebound

We are excited to begin this year with you under the theme “Hearts on Fire,” inspired by Jeremiah 20:9: “There is in my heart as it were a burning fire, shut up in my bones, and I am weary with holding it in, and I cannot.” This powerful verse reminds us of the passion and purpose God places within us through His Word. As we learn and grow together, our prayer is that each student’s heart would be set ablaze with faith, joy, and love for Christ. We look forward to a year filled with academic growth, spiritual development, and a strong sense of community rooted in God’s unshakable truth.

Thanks to those who attended the parent meeting this week. Those that missed the meeting can check the electronic homebound for the slides from the presentation.

Chapel Offerings for the 1st quarter are going to: Lutheran Bible Translators partners with local leaders in Africa, the Middle East, Papua New Guinea, Southeast Asia, and the United States to create translation programs for many communities that do not have access to God’s Word in their native language. There are still over 3,500 communities waiting for the Word of God in the language they understand best and our prayers and financial gifts enable them to provide the resources, tools, and the support local leaders need to make the Word of God more accessible than ever.
