Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Literary & Visual Arts Contest

Celebrating the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. spoke up for people who were being treated unfairly. Dr. King explained that it is our responsibility to do something when we see someone being treated unfairly because of their race, skin color or other identity, even if those people are not like us. He believed we should care about fairness for everyone. In his renowned essay "Letter from a Birmingham Jail," Dr. King said: "Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere...Whatever affects one directly, affects all indirectly." If we don't speak up for all people who are treated unfairly, it has a negative effect on us all.

PROMPT:

Describe in writing or visual art a time where you saw someone treated unfairly because of what they looked like or who they were; OR an event in history where people were treated unfairly because of what they looked like or who they were.
