

SORTING

July 28, 2021
12-1:30 pm CT
Online-Virtual

As we enter a new school year—
on the tail end of the pandemic—
and on the eve of midterm elections,
school leaders face both opportunities and challenges.

Many of the current narratives around equity and civic learning in schools are influenced by culture wars.

What can districts do to combat misinformation ...
and create a school climate that helps staff and students
sort fact from fiction?

Join us as we explore proactive measures administrators can take to create a supportive school atmosphere for all stakeholders. Hear from leading experts as they share how to separate fact from myths in the areas of civics, news, literacy, social-emotional learning, and more.
