

Parent University
Tuesday, November 13
7:00-8:30 p.m.

Raising Respectful and Compassionate Teens Who Thrive

featuring John Grossman

Lake Park High School West Campus
500 W. Bryn Mawr Ave.
Roselle, IL 60172

Last school year John challenged and motivated Lake Park freshmen and sophomores when he came to speak about compassion and self-esteem. John is returning to inspire parents this year. He will share his message that touched the hearts of so many Lancers and address how to empower teens to become self-reliant, resilient and responsible citizens.

Join us for this FREE program open to the community! Reservations are not required. Babysitting services are not available. For more information, contact Dr. Berenson (630) 529-2275.

About John Grossman: After receiving his B.S. in Communications and Public Relations from Illinois State University in 1987, he began working with young people, parents, and educators, first as a youth minister, and then as a high school teacher and development director.

Throughout that time, John was thrilled to be called upon to speak to schools, service organizations, hospitals, corporations, and churches. Over the past 30 years, John has spoken to more than 2.5 million people.