* Birth to 3rd Early Learning Project:

This presentation we will review a recent research project by the Center for the Study of Educational Policy (CSEP). This project was conducted at Illinois State University to validate the Danielson Framework for Teaching in early childhood classrooms (PreK-3rd grade), as well as view resources created to support the use of the Framework to evaluate the performance of PreK-3rd grade teachers. Online, professional learning modules and aligned resources will also be shared.
