

THREAT ASSESSMENT

A One-Day Training for School Threat Assessment Teams

The DuPage Regional Office of Education invites threat assessment teams to join Safety Specialist John Heiderscheidt and School Psychologist Lisa Aguilar in a one-day training on threat assessments. Teams will evaluate their current threat assessment procedures through practical role-play scenarios. They will also receive background information on threat assessment, actively practice scenarios within their team using their procedures, and walk away with action plans for improvement.
