EFFECTIVE COMMUNICATION FOR DIFFICULT CONVERSATIONS

WITH SUSAN BAKER

JULY
14

This action-packed workshop takes proven ideas from research and weaves them into practical activities that provide school staff with the tools needed for successful communication, especially when confronted with difficult situations. Participants will view videos, role play, and do group activities to learn how their words, tone, and body language affect effective communication. Click here to register.

INVESTIGATING MATHEMATICS STANDARDS & INSTRUCTIONAL STRATEGIES FOR K-5

WITH CHERYL BEASLEY

14

In this workshop, participants will gain valuable resources to distinguish publisher strategies for mathematics vs. standard strategies, which will be helpful for districts that are looking for new resources or prioritizing mathematics standards. Attendees will walk away with practical ideas and resources that can be used immediately to plan fall curriculum and instruction. Click here to register.

DIFFERENTIATION: EMPOWERING STUDENTS THROUGH RESPONSIVE INSTRUCTION

WITH ERIN CHRISTIE

JULY
25-27

Differentiation has become a buzzword that has obscured its true intention, which is to make learning accessible for all students. Instead, many teachers feel pressured to “do” differentiation, which is presented as a mysterious bag-of-tricks that educators can't implement or don't know how to implement. Participants in this course will be challenged to replace the mindset that they must create individualized lesson plans for each student with a strategy to empower students through responsive education. SIOP TRAINING

WITH YADI ALFARO

JULY
27-29

Sheltered Instruction Observation Protocol (SIOP) is a research-based, instructional model that is highly effective in addressing the academic needs of English learners. In this workshop, participants will learn about the SIOP model, including its eight components and thirty features, and how it provides a framework to design and deliver lessons that make content comprehensible.
