The DuPage Regional Office of Education is proud to offer a 3-day training on Leading Standards-Based Learning.

Standards-based learning is a great step forward for schools, but it must be implemented correctly to ensure the best educational experience possible. Standards-based learning systems promote equity by acknowledging that the instructional strategies that work for one student may not work for another. In this comprehensive training led by Patrick Hardy, participants will explore a research-backed, five-phase plan for leading the transition to a standards-based system. Participants will learn specific steps to develop a curriculum, train staff, leverage technology, deploy new reporting systems, and communicate with stakeholders.
