

Illinois
State Board of Education

National Board for Professional Teaching Standards Candidate Cohort Will Be Starting!

What: Find out how National Board Candidacy improves student learning

Who: all interested classroom teachers and school counselors; all currently registered National Board Candidates

Where: DuPage Regional Office of Education Cohort at Hadley Junior High School

Why: to place a highly-qualified teacher in every classroom for every student '...the best professional development that benefits my students' & get an ISBE Candidacy Stipend subsidy

When: Thursdays, 5pm- 7pm, beginning in September; Registration information at this link: <https://nbrc.illinoissstate.edu/firsttime/index.php>

How: face-to-face discussions supporting your classwork

- Work with other colleagues and discuss the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards Certification process
- Find out about mentoring assistance through this rigorous and exhaustive examination of your teaching practice
- Receive an overview of research that supports how National Board Certification benefits students and their learning
- Receive information from past successful National Board Candidates on strategies that worked for them

Get more information from: ftomaszk@d41.org