

THRIVING SCHOOLS IMPROVEMENT

Intentionally & Strategically Building on Past Successes & Challenges: AA 3909

June 7, 2022
8–11 am
Via Zoom

This virtual workshop, featuring Dr. Jonathan Cohen, will focus on research-based findings for effective and sustainable pro-social improvement efforts that create healthy school cultures. Initiatives such as SEL, school climate, civics and character education, and restorative practices will be considered.

Participants will collaborate with peers to create a personalized action plan for the upcoming school year, with an emphasis on community healing post-pandemic. Prior to attending the Academy, participants will review the Thriving Schools guide and complete a Readiness Assessment Tool and Program Audit.

Jonathan Cohen, Ph.D. is the co-president of the International Observatory for School Climate and Violence Prevention (University of Seville, Spain); Adjunct Professor in Psychology and Education (Teachers College, Columbia University); co-founder and President Emeritus of the National School Climate Center: Educating Minds and Hearts Because the Three Rs's Are Not Enough; and a practicing clinical psychologist and psychoanalyst. He has learned and worked with K-12 school leaders for more than thirty years. He is a prolific writer and most recently authored Feeling Safe in School: Bullying and Violence Prevention Around the World (2020, Harvard Educational Press).
