

“I believe character development is relational and fostered in a lifelong process of navigating and developing our inner and moral selves as we engage with others and cultivate our wisdom, courage and compassion.”

Dr. Julie Nagashima

Visiting Assistant Professor of Ethical Leadership; Coordinator of Character Education Certificate Program

CHARACTER EDUCATION CERTIFICATE

Targeted to meet the needs of educators and administrators

Goals of the Certificate Program:

- Foster a school culture of character that is caring, empowering and inclusive for students and staff
- Infuse social-emotional character development into the school culture
- Tackle equity through a commitment to the development of student and staff potential

Benefits of the Certificate:

- Professional development hours for license renewal
- A portfolio of resources
- A supportive network with which to connect

CHARACTER EDUCATION CERTIFICATE

Program Modules

- Earn 15 continuing education credits per module
- Five online sessions per module
- Modules are intended to be taken in sequence

"This course confirmed for me that character development is not a stand-alone curriculum, as it is often presented. It is a series of daily decisions that educators make to weave into their interactions the opportunity for students to be validated for their skills, interests, and ideas."
