

DIFFICULT Conversations

AN ONLINE NETWORKING EVENT WITH SPECIAL GUEST TATYANA FERTELMEYSTER

Thursday, February 15, 2023 | 8:30–10:30 AM | Online | Register

Do you DREAD difficult conversations with parents?
Would you like tips on how to transform challenging conversations into opportunities for growth, mutual respect, resolution, & understanding?

Principals, Superintendents, and Educators of all grades are invited to a special online networking event hosted by the Early Childhood Network and facilitated by Tatyana Fertelmeyster, founder of Connecting Differences. Tatyana will share tools and tricks to make difficult conversations a little less stressful.

Don't miss this enlightening event!

REGISTER

Tatyana Fertelmeyster, founder and principal of Connecting Differences, grew up in the Soviet Union and came to the U.S. as a refugee. Her many years as a licensed clinical professional counselor, an advocate for refugees, and an individual living between two cultures and languages has enriched her and given her unique perspectives on intercultural and diversity work.

Check out this video to learn more!

DuPage Regional Office of EDUCATION

Excellence in Education