

The Jeanerette Museum Presents the History Talk

The Flood of 1927

A home in Jeanerette during the flood of 1927

6 p.m. April 5, 2017

500 E. Main Street, Jeanerette, LA

It's been 90 years since the historic flood of 1927. Join the museum as Professor Charles R. Brassieur and co-presenter Charles Caillouet discuss what happened to cause the great flood of 1927 and how it affected Louisiana and local communities. Audience members will be allowed to share brief family stories that were told to them by relatives surviving the great flood following the program.

This FREE program is suitable for an adult audience

Seating may be limited and is taken on a first come, first serve basis
