INSTRUCTIONS FOR SUBMISSION

- Submit your design(s) no later than Monday, October 2, 2017, at 3:00 p.m., at the Shadows Visitor Center, 320 East Main Street, New Iberia, LA 70560.
- Type or print your name, address, email address and phone number on a single sheet of paper. This paper should also include the following statement: "I give my authority to warrant full ownership thereof to the Iberia Preservation Alliance," signed and dated by the artist. Place the single sheet of paper in a sealed envelope, and attach it to the rear surface of the art work.

SPECIFICATIONS

- $500 will be awarded to the winning artist.
- The selected design shall become the property of the Iberia Preservation Alliance (IPA). The artist relinquishes all interests and rights of ownership of the design. The winning artist also consents to the use and copyright of the design (and all copies and reproductions thereof by the IPA), and waives and relinquishes in favor of the IPA all rights and claims of ownership, all benefits, revenues and royalties derived therefrom. Announcement of the winning artist, credit given to the artist, or use of the artist's name by the IPA, shall not in any way imply proprietary rights or ownership by the artist.
- The decision of the judges and the Books Along the Teche Literary Festival Steering Committee will be final, and the Books Along the Teche Steering Committee reserves the right to reject (without explanation) any or all submissions.
- The winning design will be chosen shortly after the deadline of October 2, 2017. The winning artist will be notified immediately. All other artists will also be notified and their artwork should be picked up no later than October 19, 2017 at the Shadows Visitor Center. Any submissions not picked up will become the property of the IPA.
- For further information, please contact Becky Collins via email at beckycollins@bellsouth.net or calling (337) 519-5873.
