ADVENT'S GUIDING PRINCIPLES AND WELCOME STATEMENT

Advent's Guiding Principles— With Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior:

- We believe salvation is a gift from God, available to everyone
- We strengthen our faith as we develop our discipleship
- We are good stewards of all that God provides us
- We serve the needs of each other, our community and our world
- We follow God's will, not our own

Our Welcome Statement:

Advent Lutheran Church of Goschenhoppen, a welcoming community of God, believes ALL people are made in God's image and boundless love and ALL are valued equally within our congregation. We are empowered by God through faith to nurture and celebrate the vast diversity among individuals – single, married, partnered, divorced – and embrace their uniqueness in all aspects of life including race, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, physical or mental abilities, socioeconomic backgrounds and age. We, at Advent, affirm and welcome you to share life with us and participate in God's ministry.

Saved by God's Grace, Renewed through Word and Sacrament,
We are Sent as Disciples to Share the Gospel of Jesus.
Thanks be to God!

A MESSAGE FROM PASTOR MARK

WHAT MOTIVATES PEOPLE?

Some differences in generations

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

“We need everyone to do their share. This is your church. You have a responsibility to pitch in and do your part.”

That makes sense to some of us. It is a challenge we can understand. It is motivating.

That may be motivating for some of us. But studies suggest it doesn't work for all of us, and is less effective the younger people are.

Studies suggest that where Baby Boomers and older can be challenged or motivated by loyalty to the organization and by a sense of responsibility to do your part, Millennials and younger (those born after 1980) do not respond the same way. That does not mean these younger people are lazy or uncommitted. In fact, studies suggest that for many Millennials, service and doing something meaningful for others can be a strong motivator. And the younger generations share that focus. We have many younger adults who are leading and serving in very committed and sacrificial ways to provide for others.

Now there is always a danger when you take a generalization and make it define people. And there are always exceptions. There are times when each of us steps beyond those generalizations. But these studies suggest some basic differences; differences which can help us better understand each other, help shape our invitations and challenges, and motivate our programming and advertising.

Some examples:

“We need 10 people to sign up to help keep our outdoor spaces looking good. Do your part. Help keep your church be more welcoming.”

[Effective for Boomers, typically not as motivating for Millennials and younger]

“We're going to do a project (or mission week), where we roll up our sleeves and make a difference, and then get together and have a beer (or have ice-cream) and talk about it.” [Much more effective for Millennials and later]

“It takes money to fund our programs and staff and facilities. This is your church; you need to do your share in paying for that.” [Effective for Boomers, not so motivating for younger generations]

“We are using this money to change lives. Here's an example of someone who was impacted by our sharing....” [More effective in motivating for Millennials and younger]

So what is the takeaway from these studies? Well, different things motivate different people, so we have to find multiple ways of sharing our message. Also, it helps to have different generations represented on a ministry or committee, and listen to each other to understand our varied perspectives. Finally – and this may be the most important and the most helpful – the church needs to keep focusing on how to do things that are worthwhile and that change people's lives, and then find ways to share that message effectively. (I think that's one of the things Jesus did, and promises to keep doing through us. So...maybe it's a great reminder to refocus on following Jesus?)

We are the church together. Those 60 and up. Those 45 and under. And those in between.

Your Partner in Christ's Ministry,

Pastor Mark

Pub Theology – Thursday, August 28 at 7pm

You are welcome to join a group of Advent members, and guests and friends, for a monthly gathering at Branch Creek Taphouse, in Souderton, 30 W. Chestnut St. Souderton, PA 18964. We are switching to 4th Thursday for July and August.

What is Pub Theology?

It is an open gathering (you don't have to be a church member, or even regular worshiper, so bring that friend or neighbor) where we pour a pint (you can pour your own at the taphouse)
and discuss a faith-related question (NOT a Bible study or teaching, but a conversation).

The setting is public, the atmosphere is welcoming of all viewpoints, the invitation is to be yourself and welcome others as we listen and share.

For regular members, we come trusting that God's presence and spirit is there inviting and caring in a non-judgmental setting. For others, it's a safe place to ask questions or share perspectives and step into some faith conversations. For all of us, it is a time of honest sharing and questioning and pondering together.

Past topics we've discussed are Space for Faith, the Power of Symbols, and Traditions.

TUESDAY REST, Tuesday, August 5, 6:00pm

Join us for a short (20-30 mins) devotional and centering worship service on the first Tuesday of the month. It's called Tuesday R.E.S.T. (Restore Each-other's Spirit & Time).

The service is based on ELW's "Perfect Love Casts Out Fear: Evening Prayer." In a time of stress, anxiety, and concern, you are invited to gather in a way that centers your spirit and nurtures your faith.

Contact Pastor Mark for more information.

WORSHIP AND MUSIC

OUTDOOR SERVICE – AUGUST 3

There's something about worship, outdoors, in nature, that can be deeply inspiring.

We missed our first planned outdoor service because of rain and cold. One more try.

This Sunday, August 3, we will worship at and around the Pavilion (weather permitting). Dress for the weather of that day. Plan to sit at the picnic tables and/or bring your own lawn chairs or blankets and sit in the grassy areas nearby – in the sun or in some shade.

Same time – 9:30am.

Same options – we are planning to livestream; if something goes wrong with our setup, we'll record the service and post shortly afterwards.

Music Scholarship Application

Music Scholarship Applications are due August 1st.

Apply Now!

See Mr. Ryan.

Favorite Hymn Sunday returns!

Choose your favorite hymn to sing in worship on August 31!

Hymns must be submitted to Vince no later than the 24th of August.

We look forward to what you'd like to sing.

American Music Concert

The 18th annual American Concert was also the first concert in the pavilion.

Bravo Frappuccino! Eddie Fisher, and his friends Jetta, Brandon and Alfredo were fantastic. They were cookin' and groovin' to the sounds of Stevie Wonder. Thanks to Leda, Jen and their team, we also enjoyed the smell of hot dogs cooking (just like the ballpark) and a great lunch following the concert. (By the way, at our first American Music Concert, Eddie was 1 year old).

Facts about donating blood

The need for donors is great. Every two seconds someone in the U.S. needs blood.

1 donation can help to save the lives of up to 3 people!

The number one reason donors say they give blood is because they want to "help others."

Who can give?

If you are at least 17 years old, weigh a minimum of 110 pounds, are in general good health, and feeling well on the day of the donation, you will be eligible to give blood.

Eligible donors can give blood every two months.

Helpful Reminders

Please bring a photo ID and the names of the medications you take.

Make sure that you had a light meal and are well hydrated.

Choose a convenient time to donate blood. You can sign up on the American Red Cross website link below. Thank you for donating!

Baptismal Remembrance

To celebrate your baptism, labyrinth stickers will be placed in your church mailbox. These make great stickers for water bottles and laptops or to place in a spot you'll see each day. Around the circle are instructions for using the labyrinth: Trace inward, release distractions. Pause in the center, receive peace. Trace outward, return renewed.
