

DIGITALLY ENSHRINED

Life transformed

Cybernetic slaves to technology

An evolving race of digital entity

Transhuman era gender re-assigned

The organic shell dead left behind

Life reformed

Chipset implented far deep beneath

Entwined in flesh of their broken teeth

A dying world the perfect remedy

Brainless cyborgs without identity

Defective faulty systems

Universalized by our failures and errors

Bionic legacy

Universalized broken circuits and processors

Slaughtered deconstructed

Murdered dismantled

Slaughtered deconstructed

Butchered massacred

Life refined

Ultimately flawed new form of androids

Emptied blood vessel filled by other fluids

Body replacement a superior structure

One last decision for our kind at this juncture

Defective faulty systems

Bionic legacy

SOUL INVICTUS

Inferno burst

We'll be the first

Smoldered by the heat wave

Dying earth is our grave

Ensured time is ending

Fading

Inferno burst

We'll be the first

Wounded this red giant

Who grows but rest silent

The sea slowly drying

Fading

Vegetation's crumpling to dust

Ablaze is the planet's crust

No life form untouched

Vegetation's crumpling to dust

Ablaze is the planet's crust

No life form untouched

Escaping we must

The molten core ruptures from the scorching fury

Once before written in blood the end of humanity

A lost prophecy

Forgotten in history

Smoldered by the heat wave

Dying earth is our grave

Ensured time is ending

Fading

Inferno burst

THE UNSPOKEN IRE

Strange behaviours

Mother earth where they breed pestilence

Filled by hatred reeking of malevolence

Actions leading to a vicious final outcome

Mass suicides lifeless bodies they will become

Compost slowly decomposing

Neurotoxin rapidly spreading

Abruptly ceasing confused in the abyss

Wind blowing leaving them bound to the bliss

Under impulsion seizing a sharpened object

To eviscerate not a single one will be kept

Death assured viral outbreak unfurled

Earth's defense system vermins are churned

Gun shot to the head corpses falling

Self-immolation carcasses dropping

Compost slowly decomposing

Dead

Dead

Dead

Expanding pathogen diminished populace

Rapidly vanishing expelling vomitus

Specific poisonus disorder prominence

Ominous reversion gluttony's decadence

In the abyss

Bound to the bliss

Breed pestilence

DAWN OF ROT

We the humankind facing our awaited extinction

Blinded sheep forfeited thoughts and perception

Moding mass under a vibrant sky of green

Putrid fog corroding everything in between

Now

Foul stench rotting sores

Septic wounds festering

Left over chemicals wasteland of our nuclear war zones

Vanishing burnt to ashes and forgotten bones

Shining star falling from the mighty heavens above

Radiant flash wiping out all that is beloved

Purulent ones dying at once

A burning plague human mistake

Awake

Purulent ones dying at once

A burning plague human mistake

Awake

A burning plague human mistake

Awake

Rotten mortals Vulgar animals dying

Lost within their eyes

Forever captive in this rot

Corroding under a vibrant putrid sky

Escaping this fate we will not

Forever captive in this rot

Corroding under a vivand putrid sky

Escaping this fate we will not
