Race 1 Selections

THE HORSEPLAYERS JOURNAL by Robert Reid Jr.

#5 FLYSANTANNA finished sixth when making the transition to the big track last week but had hit the ticket for four straight at Flamboro Downs prior to that. She was claimed out of that contest by driver James MacDonald and she will now race out of the red-hot barn of trainer Carmen Auciello. This 20-time winner has hit the board 68 times in 181 career outings and might take a big step forward with the change in scenery. She has not had a start to get acclimated over the surface and gets our vote of confidence to kick off the card.

#7 BLINK AND GONE was the winner last week when priced for $9,000 and now lowers her price tag by $500 to compete in this Pop-Up Event claiming series this evening. She was given a perfect second-over trip and then paced forward off her cover in the final eighth of a mile to get up by a head over Vines To Heaven. This 22-time winner has been victorious in two of her last three at Mohawk Park and has hit the board in three of her last four over the big track. She has repeat potential and cannot be ignored.

#2 ERIKAS SHADOW finished fourth in her latest after going to the early lead from the seven-hole off the gate. She was overtaken down the backside and sat in the two-hole but did not have much to offer in the stretch drive before finishing fourth, more than three lengths in arrears at the wire. This nine-time winner has had to work from the seven-hole or worse in three of her last four and now draws an inside starting spot. She can rebound with a better effort and cannot be left off the bottom end of the exotics.

#6 WOODMERE WYLDSTYLE only missed by a half a length at Flamboro Downs in her latest when carrying the same claiming tag that she gets entered for this evening. She has been the runner-up in two of her last three over that half-mile oval and might enjoy getting back to the big track for the first time since August of 2019. This 15-time winner has landed in the top three 64 times in 126 lifetime tries and landing on the bottom end of the trifecta or super might be her ceiling.

Held at racetracks across the province, the Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) is a series of races specifically for horses sired by a stallion standing in Ontario. Since 1974 the OSS program has been promoting the breeding of quality Standardbred horses in Ontario and providing economic incentives to breed, buy and race horses in the province.

When you come out to watch the OSS races you are helping to support your local community's breeders, owners, trainers, grooms, vets, blacksmiths and more!

For the complete OSS racing schedule, stats, leader boards and more, visit

oss.ontarioracing.com

The Ontario Sires Stakes Program is administered by Ontario Racing.

Race 2 Selections

THE HORSEPLAYERS JOURNAL by Robert Reid Jr.

#6 TYMAL TEMPO rallied to be second with a final quarter in 28.1 in his first start with trotting hoppers on January 6th after jumping it off in three consecutive starts. He had turned in an impressive qualifier going into that effort where he drew off to score by more than five lengths and stopped the clock in 1:59.4 over a track that was one second off. This son of Kadabra is trending in the right direction and faces a soft field in this follow-up effort wearing that important piece of equipment for trotters that have a tendency to misbehave. He figures to be only a fraction of the nearly 9-1 he offered last time but is still our clear top choice in the contest.

#2 OCEANVIEW PRINCE got away fourth off the gate last week from the nine-hole and faded back to eighth in the stretch, beaten by more than 12 lengths on the wire. He claimed the show spot the week before that when he landed in the three-hole after the start and then maintained that position in the stretch. This son of Royalty For Life now moves back to the inside of the starting gate and has come home in 29.2 in both of his last two. He might be able to sit a favorable trip to land underneath in the fourth start of his career.

#1 LOUIS jumped it off in his latest at Western Fair and has made breaks in stride in each of his last three over that smaller surface in London, ON. He now returns to the big track where he most recently went a long way on the lead before fading to fourth in the stretch with a final panel in 33.1. This son of Muscle Mass gets to work from the pole position against a field that lacks depth and picks up the driving services of Travis Cullen.

#7 THUNDER ROMPS has picked up a cheque in four of his last five since switching to the trot but has not yet hit the board in seven tries on his new gait. He has five career victories as a pacer and must work from the outermost post in the contest. This son of Guccio might be able to work his way into the race to earn another share.

Race 3 Selections

THE HORSEPLAYERS JOURNAL by Robert Reid Jr.

#9 TUCKERS OUT found room a split second too late last week when he was only beaten by a nose at the wire after sitting an inside trip in a Pop-Up Event consolation. He got away fourth off the gate and stayed on the cones before angling to the outside in the stretch to get stuck behind horses before scrambling for clearance in the final sixteenth of a mile. This winner of nearly $100,000 must work from a tricky starting spot this time around but should be brave off his latest. Giving him the edge.

#8 HORSE TRADER turned in a big effort to be the runner-up in the final of a Pop-Up Event on January 6th when he bullied his way to the lead from the first-over position and had a clear margin in the stretch before getting gobbled up late by Life Is A Feast. He has now been the runner-up in both of his last two and was sent off at an average price of 58-1 in those efforts. This winner of more than $200,000 appears to be in good order and is among the main chances. He will have to overcome the eight-hole but is worth a look if the price is not trimmed back too much.

#3 CLOUD NINE HANOVER finished fifth in his latest at Western Fair in NW3500L3 in a contest that was won by Katch Kanna. He had finished second in two of his last three at Rideau Carleton prior to that and has now picked up a cheque in his last eight overall. This 16-time winner gets the driving services of Louis-Philippe Roy and should be spotted well from a favorable post position. He merits consideration and can be right there at the finish.

#10 JCS ROYAL TEASE made a miscue in his latest in NW3 but had won two of three in NW2 before that. He claimed the show spot when leaving from this starting spot three back but now takes on much more experienced rivals in this event for non-winners of $31,000 in 2021-22. This chestnut gets the vote of confidence from Trevor Henry and can pick up a piece if the journey is not too taxing.

Race 4 Selections

THE HORSEPLAYERS JOURNAL by Robert Reid Jr.

#2 SHES A SASSY BEACH was left with a lot of work to do in a Pop-Up Event final last week after getting away eighth off the gate and riding fifth-over cover around the final turn. He rolled wide in the stretch and just missed getting up for the show spot. This daughter of Sunshine Beach paced her back-half in 56.1 with a final quarter in 27.3. She was a winner in a preliminary leg of that series two back and now gets to work from an inside post position against a beatable group this evening. Giving her the nod.

#3 CATCH AN ACE exits the same race as the one above and went a long way on the engine in that contest before holding her off for third at the wire. She was the runner-up to the rival two back when she finished three lengths in arrears at the finish and has now hit the ticket in four of her last five overall. This 18-time winner possesses tactical speed and should be moving forward off the gate again this time around. She is among the top contenders but we will opt to utilize her underneath the one above.

#8 AMASA ARION was stuck first-over a long way after trying to move forward off the gate from the nine-hole in that same Pop-Up Event final last week. She faded to eighth in the stretch but had been no worse than fourth in the six starts prior. This 14-time winner must start from another outside post position this evening but is good enough to get a big piece of it if she can get a decent journey.

#1 TAKEYOURBREATHAWAY dropped down to the bottom condition in her latest and finished third after a pair of seventh place finishes in NW6100L5 before that She has picked up a share in six of her last eight and was a runner-up in a Pop-Up Event consolation race on December 9th. This 13-time winner gets to work from the pole position and can make her presence felt in the stretch if the trip is sweet enough.

#3 HERVEY HANOVER has been third in this class in each of his last three and has not missed a cheque at this level in his last four since dropping down to this level from NW5700L5. He now hooks a softer group than the ones he has gone postward against in his last four and gets to work from a favorable post position. This 14-time winner only tasted victory twice in 2021 but this looks like his best chance to get back to the winner's circle for the first time since August of last year.

#1 IDEAL JET has picked up shares in both of his last two and most recently had the early lead from the nine-hole before sitting a two-hole trip to the winner of a Pop-Up Event consolation. He has won three of his last eight with all of those victories coming at Western Fair but now gets reunited with James MacDonald, who has driven him to victory once in the six times they have been paired. This 43-time winner gets to work from the pole position and has a chance if J-Mac can summon something close to his best.

#8 HITMAN HILL went all the way on the engine in his latest at Flamboro Downs and held a healthy margin throughout before scoring by nearly three lengths under the wire at 85 cents to the dollar. He found himself in an easy spot in NW1500L3 and now has two victories in his last six for trainer Gerard Demers. This 25-time winner gets the vote of confidence from Trevor Henry and can get forwardly placed off the wings of the gate from the eighth-hole. He can hit the ticket.

#2 ADORE HIM was a winner at Western Fair in his latest when he got to the lead from post-five and did all the heavy lifting before holding on by a head at the wire. It marked his second start back after a layoff of nearly three months and now he will try his luck on the big track for the first time since August of 2020. He gets to work from the inside of the gate and picks up Scott Young in the sulky.

#4 COLD RAGE disappointed as the favorite in his latest when he got away eighth off the gate and then rolled wide around a stalling outer flow on the final turn. He trotted his back-half in 57.2 with a final quarter in 28 seconds flat over a track that was one second off. This son of Whom Shall I Fear went into that effort off a break in stride and will likely be handled more aggressively this time around. He gets reunited with driver Louis-Philippe Roy and gets to leave from a favorable spot on the gate. Giving him our top honors.

#3 MODERN MASS has earned nearly $130,000 more than anyone else in the contest and only gets to move back to this NW2 event because they have opened it to allow mares that are NW4. She has spent her last six in NW3 and was a winner the last time she raced at this level on October 11th. This daughter of Muscle Mass has been camera shy throughout her career with just three wins in 44 attempts but has hit the board 23 times. She looms a danger.

#2 WICKENBURGH is one for 18 so far in his career but gets back to NW2 after facing tougher rivals in both a Pop-Up Event and the Harvest Series. He has hit the board in three of his last six and was a runner-up to the heavily favored Gp Dreamin three back. This son of Il Sogno Dream has had to work from the six-hole or worse in each of his last four and now gets to leave from an inside post position. He should be close throughout and can hit the ticket.

#7 ROSIES WAR BONDS tried to go all the way on the lead in his latest but was picked up in the shadow of the wire by Magic Wanda. He has now finished in the top three in four of his last five but has been caught on the engine in three of those tries. This son of Muscle Mass made a miscue from the 10-hole three back and now starts from the outermost post in the contest this evening in post-seven. He has more than enough early foot to cross over in front of his rivals early but might get caught in the late stages again.

TOP 10 AFTER 2 LEGS ELIGIBLE FOR $22,000 FINAL. CONSOLATION WILL BE WRITTEN.

#4 VINES TO HEAVEN finished second in her latest and was only beaten by a head on the wire to Blink And Gone after foring to the lead from the first-over position. It was a step in the right direction after finishing fourth two back and now her price tag is lowered by $500 to compete in this Pop-Up Event for claiming mares. She gets to work from a favorable spot on the gate and meets a beatable group. Top call.

#9 MISS ROCKADALI got the lead at the halfway point but had no answer for one above when that rival came to call in the stretch. She took on tougher foes in a Pop-Up Event series in her starts prior and has hit the board in three of her last five in the claiming ranks. This 18-time winner must overcome the nine-hole but has more than enough early foot to get spotted well before the first turn. She is one of the top contenders in the contest.

#8 E R RHONDA finished fifth last week in the same race that the two above exit. It was her first start back over the big track in nearly three months and she turned in a decent effort to rally late for fifth. She paced her back-half in 57.3 with a final quarter in 28 seconds flat. This 61-time winner picks up the services of Austin Sorrie and should be rolling late.

#2 STREAKAZANA has spent her last three racing for the price of $7,000 at Flamboro Downs after finishing fifth here off the claim for Richard Moreau on December 9th. She came right back on just three days' rest in that effort and now gets reunited with Sylvain Filion in this opening leg of a Pop-Up Event claiming series. This 10-time winner should get away well off the gate and be in the mix throughout.

Race 8 Selections

THE HORSEPLAYERS JOURNAL by Robert Reid Jr.

#2 INTOTHEMYSTICMOON had not raced in three weeks in her latest when she offered a challenge to the odds-on favorite Wildcat Star in the late stages. She only missed by half a length on the wire and has now hit the board in four of five to kick off her career. This daughter of Artspeak was placed up to be the winner on November 11th when Pull Me Through committed interference in the stretch and now looks poised to notch a victory on her own volition after pacing her final panel in 26.3 last time. Louis-Philippe Roy will be back at the controls and she is hard to go against.

#7 WINDSUN SHIRAZ was a long way back off tepid fractions before pacing her back-half in 56.4 with a final quarter in 28.4. She also suffered interference that further hindered her chances and has now been bothered by another rival in each of her last two. This daughter of American Ideal might get overlooked on the odds board but she had hit the board in two of three before her last pair of efforts. She might be able to add some value on the bottom end of the exotics.

#3 COME ROLL WITH ME was the runner-up in her latest when she could not get to Santacruz Seelster in the stretch. She was inching in on that rival at the wire but was beaten by a half a length at the finish. This daughter of Roll With Joe took support in her latest after dropping down to NW1 after taking on much tougher in the Niagara Series and figures to attract attention again. She has missed a week between starts but gets the nod from Scott Young, who was also named on the one below.

#8 ROCKET GIRL returns from a two-month hiatus and comes back in a softer spot in NW1 after spending her last six in NW2. She was a winner by a nose at this level at long odds back in July and now comes back to the races off a decent qualifier on the morning of January 7th. This daughter of Warrawee Needy is one of four in the race that have already gotten their picture taken and she picks up the driving services of James MacDonald for the first time in her career.

THE HORSEPLAYERS JOURNAL by Robert Reid Jr.

#1 CLODAM BAYAMA has won two of her last three, including the final of a Pop-Up Event in her latest, since getting claimed by trainer Carmen Auciello on December 17th. She was an easy winner at 60 cents to the dollar in the opening leg of that series and then disappointed the following week as the favorite when she faded to finish third in the stretch. This 11-time winner then took down all the cash in the final last week and has already more than paid for herself in less than a month. She once again races for a price tag and should be able to handle this group, where all of her rivals have been racing in the condition claiming ranks. The pick.

#6 MOSTLY DALI blew up the tote board when she won in the bottom condition class on January 7th and then raced on just one day of rest when finishing third at Flamboro Downs in her latest. She has hit the board in five of her last six and is now making her fourth start in 12 nights. This 18-time winner fits well with this group and looks like the main danger.

#2 BAYWATCHING has been the runner-up in both of her last two when racing in a condition claimer. She seems to have turned a corner since going on the lasix program three starts ago and was second best to a dominant winner in Kounnis in her latest. This daughter of Hes Watching retains Trevor Henry at the controls and should get every chance to hit the ticket from post-two.

#5 BLACK BETTY won three in a row in December but then has not been able to get into the race in both of her last two. She is a closer that can be at the mercy of the pace being set on the engine but will not have as much ground to make up in this compact field of six. This daughter of Betterthancheddar should be in striking range turning for home but we will still prefer the three above. She can grab a share.

Race 10 Selections

THE HORSEPLAYERS JOURNAL by Robert Reid Jr.

#1 LADY KATIE B has picked up back-to-back cheques against tougher in her last two at Mohawk Park and now drops down to a level where the lifetime earnings cap is less than half of what it was in her last two. She was competing in NW3 at Flamboro Downs prior to that and should enjoy the company she keeps tonight. This daughter of Bettors Delight had five wins last season and hit the board in 13 of 28. She fits well with this group and will be hard to beat if Jamieson can summon her best. Giving her top billing in the finale.

#3 KAYLIES REAL got away in the three-hole at this level last week and was then shuffled back on the final turn before getting caught behind a wall of horses in the stretch. She was unable to find a seam until it was much too late and powered through to grab the show spot in the final sixteenth of a mile. This daughter of Yankee Cruiser gets to start from a favorable post position but loses Jamieson to the one above. She picks up a familial face in Trevor Henry and should be breathing fire after her latest.

#6 DILLY TARYN was a winner in this class last week at long odds when she came from off the pace to score by just over a length at the wire. She paced her back-half in 57.2 with a final quarter in 27.3. This daughter of Believeinbruiser hit the board once in three legs of a Pop-Up Event claiming series and was taking on much tougher in the Harvest Series prior to that. Louis-Philippe Roy gives her his vote of confidence over the one below and a double-up is not out of the question.

#4 SANTACRUZ SEELSTER was a wire-to-wire winner in NW1 on December 30th and now moves back to the condition claiming ranks. She held off a pair of well-supported rivals in the stretch last time but loses Roy to the one above. This daughter of Sunshine Beach picks up Jonathan Drury in the sulky and can be dangerous if she moves forward off the gate. She should be confident coming into this and is worth a look if the price is right.

#10 MARVELOUS KISS went overland a long way last week before finishing sixth in this class and will now have to work from the 10-hole for the second time in three starts. She gets the nod from Sylvain Filion who was also listed on two others in the contest. This other daughter of Bettors Delight might be able to spice up the bottom end of the exotics at a price.

Smoking Regulations

The Government of Ontario is committed to improving the health of residents through the implementation of the Smoke-Free Ontario Act. Recent changes to the Act, which came into effect on January 1, 2015, further restrict the use of tobacco products in restaurants and bar patios. Smoking is now prohibited in all areas where food is served or sold or offered for consumption or in areas that are operated in conjunction with an area where food and drink is served or sold.

The City of Toronto has also enacted restrictions on smoking in public places by requiring that smoking is not permitted within a 9 metre radius of an entrance or exit to a public building.

Please refer to signage posted throughout the facility and the site to determine where smoking is permitted.
