

A TIAA Financial Essentials webinar

Attention to Detail: Financial finishing touches for women

Am I ready to retire? How do I know if I have enough? How do I plan my income? What should I look out for as I plan and even after I am retired? Financial success can often complicate your life and we are going to try to help you answer those questions and more.

Register today for this live webinar on Thursday, April 15 at 12 p.m. (ET).

Featured speaker:

Michelle Szczepanski, Associate Financial Consultant, TIAA

Michelle Szczepanski is an Associate Financial Consultant within the Institutional Retirement division at TIAA. In her role, Michelle is focused on helping participants plan for their financial well-being and retirement readiness. She meets with employees one on one, and provides personalized counseling, education and advice, including specific asset allocation and fund selection recommendations based on a plan's investment options. Michelle holds a Bachelor of Science in finance and management from Slippery Rock University. She has obtained FINRA Series 7, 63 and 66 registrations, and maintains life, health and variable annuity licenses from the state(s) of Pennsylvania, West Virginia, New York and Ohio.

Please refer to the Plan Disclosure Book on a state 529 plan's website prior to investing, for details on risk, tax benefits, charges and expenses, and whether your home state offers tax or other benefits such as financial aid, scholarship funds, or protection from creditors for investing in its own 529 plan. Investments in the Plan are neither insured nor guaranteed and there is the risk of investment loss. Consult your legal or tax professional for tax advice. TIAA-CREF Tuition Financing, Inc. (TFI) is the Plan Manager for several state 529 plans, and TIAA-CREF Individual & Institutional Services, LLC, Member FINRA, is the distributor and underwriter for those plans.
