

NASTF Finalizes Details for Fall General Meeting in Las Vegas

The National Automotive Service Task Force (NASTF) has announced the final details for its fall general meeting. The meeting is open to the public and will take place on the afternoon of November 6th, 2019 at the Sands Expo Convention Center. The meeting will begin at 1:30 pm in the Venetian, Casanova Room 606-607. AAPEX registration is NOT required to attend the NASTF general meeting sessions.

Before the start of the meeting, NASTF will host a special security demonstration featuring Rob Reynolds in the Mobility Park at 12:15. AAPEX registration will be required for this session only. Register here.

The general meeting will feature a series of presentations including:

- Bob Augustine, Drew Technologies, ADAS is not a thing - Hear from one of the industry's leading experts on why the industry needs to adjust its focus
- NASTF's Registry Management Team- Learn about the other side of NASTF SDRM and its efforts to assist law enforcement to shut down counterfeiters and protect legitimate repair businesses
- Jim Silverman, Automotive Training Institute- Hear about the latest in repair order technology to assist in speeding up and streamlining your operation from a panel of the industry's leading experts
- NASTF's Communications Team and Service Technology Team - Be the first to see a demonstration of NASTF's new website, including individual customizations

The general meeting will also include several demonstrations and a return of the "What's Up with You?" session. Please plan to bring your 1-2 minute story about something exciting or newsworthy happening in your part of the industry.

For more information about the meeting, please Holly Wolfe at hwolfe@nastf.org.