Community Center

5:30-7pm

6516 Washington
St. Yountville

Climate Education 101:

Climate and You - What Can You Do?

The goal of this, and future sessions, is to increase awareness of the issues surrounding Climate Change, answer questions, and provide practical information and solutions for our Napa County community.

Professor Andrew Isaacs is a scientist who teaches courses on Climate Science and Climate Change at UC Berkeley's Haas School of Business. In addition to teaching at Berkeley, he has taught courses for over 100 corporations in the US, Europe and Asia as well as for community groups. Professor Isaacs began his career at NASA's Johnson Space Center in Houston, TX.
