Program

Naomi and Ruth were Biblical examples of women from different times and different countries who through their strength, wisdom, and friendship teach us all about God's enduring love. We will explore their story and have opportunities to listen deeply and prayerfully, reflect and share our stories to increase our awareness of the importance of women and build community.

Each registration will include a copy of Rev. St. Clair's book: Naomi and Ruth: Loyalty Among Women.

Covid-19 Safety Measures

All attendees must be vaccinated and boosted for COVID-19. Please bring proof of your vaccinations to camp. Masks are expected while indoors.

Keynote Speaker

Reverend Christina St. Clair has written and published articles, essays, and many novels. She has an M.A. in pastoral ministry and is trained in spiritual direction. She has developed and led many spirituality groups and has pastored two mainstream Protestant churches. She is currently a supply preacher for First Congregational U.C.C., in Huntington, West Virginia. Writing, spirituality, and ministry come together in her latest novel:

Naomi and Ruth:
Loyalty Among Women.

Weekend Activities

In addition to the program, there will be time to explore Templed Hills Camp, to meet with Outdoor Ministry staff, to shop at The Market Path fair trade store, to get crafty doing art projects, and to have lots of fun and fellowship with friends, new and old!
