Lenten Food Drive is Here!

Our Lenten Food Drive, benefiting Collierville Food Pantry, kicked off on Ash Wednesday, and is underway! The Food Drive becomes a way for us to engage in the Lenten discipline of remembering the needs of neighbors who struggle to have sufficient food to eat, praying for them, and helping to fill the need. You can scan our QR code and order items from our Amazon Wish List and have them delivered directly to the church. To use this list, click on the button that says "Top Search Results" and pick the items in each category you wish to purchase.

AGO Bach-a-thon Today!

The Memphis Chapter of the American Guild of Organists is holding a Bach-a-thon this afternoon, March 1, from 2 to 5 pm. You are invited to slip in and enjoy an hour or more of the music.

Caregiver Support Group

On the first Wednesday of each month, Grace-St. Luke's, Memphis, hosts a support group for those who are serving as caregivers for loved ones. It is a time of sharing and mutual support and encouragement. The group time is co-facilitated by the Rev. Dr. Jesse Abell, LMSW, and GSL member, Beth Rushing, LPC-MHSP. For more information, contact Fr. Jesse at jesse.abell@gracestlukes.org.

Waffle Shop is Open at Calvary

Returning Wednesdays - Fridays through March 27, Calvary Episcopal Church's Waffle Shop marks its 98th year of feeding Memphians waffles, chicken hash, and the famously polarizing fish pudding, recipes that have changed little since the tradition began in 1928. Served by volunteers and eaten shoulder to shoulder with strangers and friends, the meals draw longtime devotees, first-timers, office workers, students, artists, clergy, and curious passersby. What sets the Waffle Shop apart is what happens at the same hour upstairs. At noon, Calvary's Lenten Preaching Series begins in the church, continuing a preaching tradition that dates back more than a century. The preaching and the Waffle Shop run concurrently, allowing people to choose one or to move easily between the table and the sanctuary. The Preaching Series is known nationally for its eclectic lineup whose work reaches beyond church walls. See you at 102 N Second St, Memphis!
