Waffle Shop is Open at Calvary

Returning Wednesdays - Fridays through March 27, Calvary Episcopal Church's Waffle Shop marks its 98th year of feeding Memphians waffles, chicken hash, and the famously polarizing fish pudding, recipes that have changed little since the tradition began in 1928. Served by volunteers and eaten shoulder to shoulder with strangers and friends, the meals draw longtime devotees, first-timers, office workers, students, artists, clergy, and curious passersby. What sets the Waffle Shop apart is what happens at the same hour upstairs. At noon, Calvary's Lenten Preaching Series begins in the church, continuing a preaching tradition that dates back more than a century. The preaching and the Waffle Shop run concurrently, allowing people to choose one or to move easily between the table and the sanctuary. The Preaching Series is known nationally for its eclectic lineup whose work reaches beyond church walls. See you at 102 N Second St, Memphis!
