The students of St. Cecelia Catholic School of Clearwater, Florida gathered by the school's flagpole where they honored the courageous of our country, the veterans. A prayer service and flag raising to God Bless America was a very touching sight to behold. The students were asked the question, "Who are veterans?" Among the answers that were given by the students was that veterans are people who selflessly lay down their lives for freedom, liberty and ultimately peace in the world. Thank you veterans for all your sacrifices.
