St. Cecelia Catholic School located at 1350 Court St., Clearwater, Florida held a dedication and ribbon cutting on Wednesday February 13th for a perimeter fence that was generously donated by Lee and Debbie Arnold of Clearwater, Florida. In attendance were Clearwater Mayor George Cretekos, Clearwater City Manager Bill Horne and Clearwater City Commissioner Hoyt Hamilton.

The school community gathered in the gym where they sang to the Arnolds and presented them with handmade gifts of Sunflowers. St. Cecelia School has long held safety as a priority for its' students as demonstrated by the presence of the former Officer Friendly for the Clearwater Police Department, Mr. Fred Casale who has been employed by the school for over 20 years as safety director. The school has also maintained security cameras and interior fencing of the campus. St. Cecelia School remains proactive in keeping its' students safe and secure, and with the help of benefactors Lee and Debbie Arnold were able to add an additional layer of security.
