

The Big Class

Civil Conversations in Uncivil Times: Practicing Our Faith in the Public Square with Ray Suarez

*Free Worldwide Class Taught By Ray Suarez
Register today, take the class between October 12 - 26, 2020*

The 2020 U.S. election is poised to become the most contentious ever.

Battle lines have been drawn and many people are convinced their party and their candidate are the only alternative to national chaos.

Ray Suarez knows a lot about heated political landscapes. He has spent decades as a broadcast journalist with the PBS Newshour,

NPR, and other media outlets. He also knows a great deal about faith. As an award-winning journalist, college instructor, and outspoken Episcopalian, he has written a book on the subject, and offers really helpful insight in this free class.

In this course, Ray Suarez draws from his three decades of political coverage, deep knowledge of history and journalism to help us learn more about both the politics at hand, as well as the hope the Gospel gives us to live faithfully. Register today then come back anytime between July 2-15 to take the course

Study alongside students around the world in this free, 45-minute, pre-recorded online class. No special software is required and nothing needs to be downloaded.

Sign up today and take it anytime between October 12 - 26. It's ideal for everyone in your church. Go to churchnext.tv > Menu > The Big Class to register.

This course is brought to you by The Episcopal Church, The Episcopal Church Foundation, Trinity, Wall Street, The Consortium for Endowed Episcopal Parishes, Forward Movement and ChurchNext.