The Voice of Freedom: Civil Rights introduces audiences to the operatic art form by celebrating African-American cultural history through song. Universal in its emotional and musical appeal, this unique production will highlight gospel, jazz, and works from the Civil Rights Movement.

The Voice of Freedom: Civil Rights aims to share the African-American experience with audiences of all ages, races, and religions.

This show is an abridged version of

The Journey: Civil Rights.

A voluntary, freewill offering collection will occur during the performance. All contributions will be used by St. John's to support this programming.
