Dr. Gillian Ahlgren, Professor of Theology, is a church historian and specialist in the Christian mystical tradition. The author of seven books, including Enkindling Love: The Legacy of Teresa of Avila and John of the Cross, The Tenderness of God: Reclaiming Our Humanity, and Spiritual Exercises for the 21st Century: A Workbook, Dr. Ahlgren is widely considered one of the world's leading experts on Teresa of Avila. She has been teaching at Xavier since 1990 and does significant pastoral work in the local community and beyond, working with women who have survived domestic violence and those who are in recovery from substance abuse. Her favorite classes to teach are Christian Mysticism, Spiritual Exercises for the 21st Century, Recovery and Growth after Trauma, Franciscan Spirituality and Spirituality and Transformation.
