"Our goal is to find County Council candidates who will listen to, carefully consider, and respond to the views of all residents—and exercise careful oversight to ensure an effective government," said spokesperson Harold Pfohl. "After two years of COVID and the disconnect we all feel with our government, it is time to make sure we all have a voice in our government and the people who represent us."

Through legislation and oversight, Montgomery County's Councilmembers play a major role in the quality of life for all of our residents of whatever ethnicity, race, or income. Who is elected to the Council matters greatly.
