

FAITH FORUM

Adult Conversations about Matters of Faith

ETERNITY IS NOW IN SESSION - ARE WE THERE YET?

And then plan on attending Faith Forum this Sunday for a more in-depth look at that passage. Because, you see, “eternal life” has largely come to be understood as a state we enter into after we die—if we’re “good.” But that’s not how Jesus defined eternal life. Actually, Jesus had in mind a condition of our being that can occur in the here-and-now. So, that means eternity can begin for you right now—if it hasn’t already. And with that entry into eternity comes all the blessings of eternal life. Sound like something you’d like to hear more about? Join the conversation as we look “to [eternity] and beyond” (to paraphrase Buzz Lightyear in the movie Toy Story).
