Immigration Advocacy Support Center

This Sunday is we continue reaching out to our immigrant and refugee neighbors. IASC is located at 8 Washington Street in New London. IASC is pronounced "I Ask". IASC was established ten years ago with the mission to provide low-cost, high-quality immigration-related legal services and to educate communities in Southeast Connecticut on immigration law and policy.

Among other things, IASC focuses on "family immigration law" and using it to help immigrants

- Establish Permanent Legal Residency
- Reunite parents, children and spouses
- Renew and replace legal permanent residency cards
- Apply for citizenship

Unity in Community.

IASC is a non-profit organization that provides immigration-related legal services and education in Southeast Connecticut.
