

MOURNING & LEARNING: North Peninsula Yom HaShoah 2025

Sunday, April 27 | 3:00 – 5:45 PM

Congregation Beth Jacob, Redwood City

Join your North Peninsula Jewish community for a powerful commemoration of Yom HaShoah, taking a journey of mourning and learning, as we honor survivors and victims of the Holocaust. Friends of all backgrounds are warmly invited.

PROGRAM INCLUDES:

3:00 PM

Memorial Service & Candle Lighting

4:00 PM & 5:00 PM

New Educational Breakout Sessions

- ▶ Intergenerational Trauma
- ▶ Refugee Stories from the Holocaust Center Archive
- ▶ “Survivor Studio” Testimony plus art process
- ▶ And More

More Yom HaShoah Experiences:

Virtual Candle Lighting Service & Name Reading

Wednesday, April 23 | 7:30 PM

Online - No pre-registration required

Join for an intimate Zoom service marking the beginning of Yom HaShoah, with a meaningful candle lighting ceremony and the reading of names. The Zoom link will be available on the PJCC website.

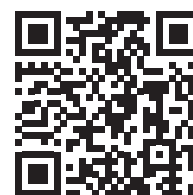

Reflection Spaces Across the Peninsula

Thursday, April 24

Engage in personal and communal reflection throughout the day at our local synagogues as the PJCC. Specific times will be on the PJCC website.

For more information & to Register,
visit: pjcc.org/yomhashoah2025

Questions? Contact: jewishlife@pjcc.org

Coastside Jewish Community, Congregation Beth Jacob, Peninsula Jewish Community Center, Peninsula Sinai Congregation, Peninsula Temple Beth El, Peninsula Temple Sholom, Wornick Jewish Day School