Professional Development in the Studio

Saturday, November 14, 2020

Mississippi Museum of Art & Pearl River Glass Studio

Because of the COVID-19 restrictions, space in these will be extremely limited. Registration for members will open on Aug. 24, and non-members will be able to register starting Sept. 8. The cost for each workshop is $65 which includes the online professional development day on Sunday and supplies for the studio concentration.

Fused Glass at Pearl River Glass Studio Melanie McKinley

Back by popular demand, Pearl River Glass will offer a concentration in their studios in Midtown Jackson. Participants will learn about fused glass, gain skills to cut and assemble glass, and create a glass platter to keep.

Handbuilt Ceramic Mugs Lauren Lewis

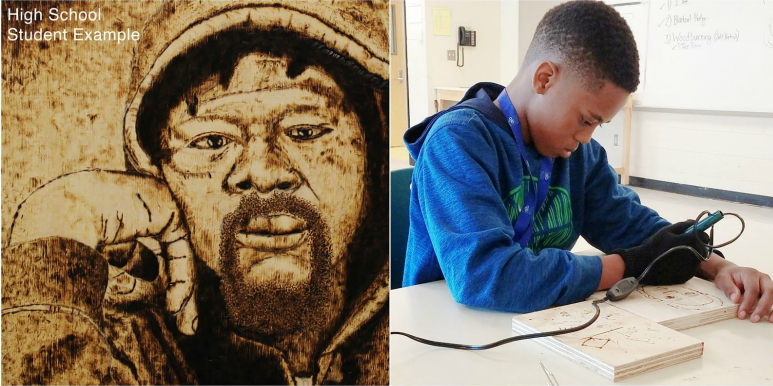

Learn about the intricacies of ceramics for yourself and your classroom with this hands on pottery workshop with Lauren Lewis! You will be making your own ceramic mug, which will be bisqued during the conference, with options to have it fired and shipped if needed. Topics to be discussed include firing schedules, underglazes/glazes/overglazes, lesson ideas, and additive materials.

Pyrography: Bringing Wood Burning into Your Classroom and Artwork

Renna Moore

High School
Student Example

Pyrography is the art of drawing with heat in order to achieve visual imagery with sepia-like tones. Mastering subtle shading and realistic textures with accuracy can open a world of creativity and lead to exciting artwork for you and your classroom. In this hands on workshop, you will be introduced to basic and advanced techniques of wood burning. Workshop topics will include exploring tools/shading/texture, using a variety of surface types, safety procedures, transfer techniques, adding color to the finished product, and so much more. We will also cover how to adapt this media into different classroom ages (4th-12th). After experimenting, you will have the opportunity to discover your own unique style and complete a finished pyrography piece of artwork. Lesson plans, PowerPoint, and handouts will be provided.

Street Art Sculpture

Lionel Clark

In this class participants will be introduced to the history, creation and legality associated with the creation of graffiti. Participants will also create a diorama using the concepts taught in this class. Diorama will consist of mixed media including: paint, air dry clay, found and natural objects. Lesson plans, notes and handouts will also be provided.

Registration Information

The 2020 MAEA Fall Mini Conference will feature up to two full days of professional development. In-person studio workshops will be hosted on Saturday, November 14 at the Mississippi Museum of Art and Pearl River Glass Studio, and online sessions will be presented on Sunday, November 15. All sessions are specifically geared to help Visual Arts teachers strengthen their teaching practices and show connections to the Mississippi Visual Arts Standards as well as give teachers opportunities to reflect, problem solve, and share new ideas and experiences. Up to 1 CEU or 10 contact hours are available during this professional development conference.

Registration Costs:

- Studio Concentrations (includes online professional development) - $65
- Online Professional Development Only - $25

You can receive a full refund until October 31. No refunds beginning November 1 when supplies are ordered. Register early to ensure a spot in the Saturday Studio Art Concentration of your choice. Registration links will be emailed and posted on the MAEA Facebook page and website when available.
