

Ontario Association of Parents in Catholic Education Toronto

Monday April 24th 2017

It is time to approve the budget for the 2017-2018 school year and the Board wants to hear from you!

Come one, come all and join OAPCE Toronto for its April meeting! Carlene Jackson, the TCDSB Chief Financial Officer will present the budget and will answer your questions and hear your concerns or suggestions!

PRO-Grants!

The second part of our meeting will be spent on OAPCE Toronto holds an annual PRO-Grant session where we will explain and walk you through the application process.

Come prepared with your laptops and we will help you complete a successful application. Need ideas? This is a great opportunity to network with other parents where you will hear about any challenges and be inspired by the PRO-Grant successes of parents like you!

Mark Your Calendar!

All meetings take place at 80 Sheppard Ave. E. at 7:00 p.m.

Next OAPCE-Toronto meeting is on Monday April 24th at 7pm at the CEC.

April is Volunteer Appreciation Month!

A special “Thank You” to all the wonderful people who give of their time, talents and energy in order to make our children’s school experience a happy one!

The TCDSB is also recognizing April 23-29th as National Volunteer Appreciation Week! <https://www.tcdsb.org/pages/volunteer-appreciation.aspx>

Let's Get Together! is bringing together under one roof resources that cater to families, schools and communities that any parent, school volunteer and industry decision maker could ever dream of. This revolutionary event strives to build community by involving parents in their children’s learning experience using resources within their community. It also aims to provide parents, school councils and community resources an unparalleled platform to network and grow together. More information can be found here:

On behalf of the Team at OAPCE Toronto, we would like to wish you and your families a very Blessed Easter season. Hoping that this time will bring you many opportunities for renewal in health, family and of your Faith.

CSPC CORNER

Is your CSPC “stuck” under mounds and mounds of candy grams and you’re sick of pizza lunches? Do you wish you could do something that will make the kids want to come to school?

Here are a few good ideas

Order some Royal Ontario Museum EduTravelling Kits to enhance your classroom experience:

<http://www.rom.on.ca/en/learn/travelling-programs/travelling-edukits>

$5,000 to support student learning and well-being.

There’s still time! Application closes midnight, April 5th:

<https://www.canadapost.ca/web/en/pages/aboutus/communityfoundation/criteria.page>

$1,000 to support healthy eating initiatives:

Woo Hoo

What have we been up too?

Saturday April 8th was the Provincial Parent Involvement Symposium. OAPCE Provincial was there with representation by three regional Directors. Parents from a number of our schools were also there as was our wonderful Director of Education, Angela Gauthier!

There were a number of different speakers, along with Minister of Education Mitzie Hunter who acknowledged the hard work and passion shown by parent volunteers in our school communities.

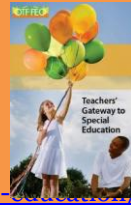

What would you like to know more about?

Teachers Gateway to Special Education

Here you'll find tools and strategies that are meant to help students that are differently abled K-12. This can be not only a parent resource but it can be a helpful resource for teachers and support staff. It takes a village to raise a child!

TCDSB Anaphylaxis Protocol & Guidelines

Every school (both elementary and secondary) must reduce the risk of exposure in common areas, set a communication plan to inform school community (staff too), regular training for all in direct contact with student, prepare an individual plan for each anaphylactic student and ensure that parents provide info about the anaphylactic student including current treatment and prescriptions.

<https://www.tcdsb.org/Board/Policies/Documents/Anaphylaxis%20-%20Final%20September%2024,%202013.pdf>

You can find more info here:

Safe and Accepting Schools Teams (SAST)

Every school must have one according to Ontario legislation.

You can find a link to this document and to more Safe Schools related resources on the Safe Schools link for the TCDSB:

School Councils (Catholic School Parent Councils)

As hard as we may try to give you all the info that you need to run an efficient CSPC...we may miss a thing or two...LOL! Here is a link to the Ministry of Education's resource guide:

<http://www.edu.gov.on.ca/eng/general/elemsec/council/guide.html>

Pauline Books and Media: more ways for living faith in real life today.

If you are looking for a word of solace and encouragement, inspiration, books and DVDs to pass the faith on to your children, resources for pastoral ministry, spiritual reading to deepen your faith or help you explore moral issues, you'll want to make Pauline Books and Media one of your favorite places to go.

Located at:

3022 Dufferin Street, Toronto, ON M6B 3T5

Phone (416) 781-9131

<http://www.pauline.org/>

We offer:

- * Information on Catholic books, music, videos
- * Events held at the store
- * Assistance in obtaining Catholic media for ministry
- * Scheduling an exhibit for your parish or convention
- * Organizing a JClub Catholic Book Fair for your school
- * Presentations on spirituality, theology of the body, vocation, faith, and more

Specialties

Pauline Books and Media offers a broad selection of Catholic books, music and movies in the areas of spirituality, Catholic faith, Catholic theology and Catholic instruction, lives of the saints, spiritual classics, inner healing, Catholic bibles and bible study guides, missals, Liturgy of the Hours, prayer books and novenas. We also carry rosaries, statues, patron saint medals, crosses and crucifixes. You'll find resources for Advent and Lent (Stations of the Cross, daily reflections for Lent), and gifts for sacramental occasions; baby gifts, First Communion prayer books, First Communion cards and gifts, Confirmation gifts and cards, RCIA and ordination gifts).

Since 1989, Pauline Books and Media is a Catholic bookstore run by religious sisters, the Daughters of St. Paul. You'll find great Catholic books, music and movies, but also a Blessed Sacrament Chapel where Jesus is present in the Eucharist. Here the sisters will give you their personal attention so that you'll leave more confident in your faith, strengthened in moments of darkness, and at peace. The Daughters of St. Paul are an international community of Catholic sisters who use all forms of media to spread the Word of God.
