Manufacturers Bank

Manufacturers Bank was formed in downtown Los Angeles by a group of banking entrepreneurs in June, 1962, to serve the apparel industry. Today, Manufacturers Bank serves the specialized needs of California middle-market businesses manufacturers, wholesalers, distributors, importers, exporters, and service companies, including small businesses and professionals. The mission of Manufacturer's Bank is to achieve being the "bank of choice" for middle market and professional services companies. Their vision is to be the premiere California regional business bank that can provide the sophistication and expertise of a larger institution with the personal "high touch" services of a smaller bank.
