

Jim Garrison founded PacFed in Glendale back in 1977 and was acquired by Zenith American in 2017. He has worked in the health insurance industry for over 40 years.

One of the nation's largest employee benefit administrators, Zenith American provides health & retirement administration solutions to approximately 2-million families from over 45 Zenith-locations across the US.

Jim has been a devoted and committed Board Member for the past 11 years. Thank you, Jim!

But did you know, among his many professional endeavors, he serves on the following boards:

- ❖ Dolores Huerta Foundation
- ❖ El Proyecto del Barrio
- ❖ Music Fund of Los Angeles
- ❖ Chairman of the Development Council for Loyola Marymount University's Center for the Study of Los Angeles.

He served on:

- ✓ Executive board of directors for the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and as co-chair of its Health Care Council.
- ✓ Past member of California Electoral College and the California Democratic Party Finance Council.

Among his many awards:

- 🏆 Boys and Girls Club of the San Fernando Valley Golden Hands Award
- 🏆 Teamsters National Hispanic Caucus Community Award
- 🏆 Dolores Huerta Foundation Richard Chavez Memorial Award Farmworker
- 🏆 Justice Corporate and Social Responsibility Award San Gabriel Valley
- 🏆 Civic Alliance Lifetime Achievement Award
- 🏆 Southern California Chapter of the Teamsters National Black Caucus Excellence in Leadership Award

PacFed was inducted into the Valley Industry and Commerce Association (VICA), San Fernando Valley Business Hall of Fame in June 2019. And each year since 2016, Jim has been named among the San Fernando Valley's most influential 200 business leaders by the San Fernando Valley Business Journal.