

Engage Your Mentee with These FUN Activities

November's Mentor Training presented participants with the opportunity to learn and experience inspired activities to share with their mentees. Fun and easy to implement, these activities are sure to spark the imagination and may also increase communication.

Want to bring a smile to your mentee's face? How to Write a Haiku is an entertaining way to practice writing skills while creating a one-of-a-kind poem. Appropriate for all grade levels, this fun activity involves minimal pre-planning and few materials. Click Write a Haiku

"Build –A-Bear" is a highly popular store found in most malls that gives the customer the ability to create and build their very own one of a kind stuffed animal friend. In this activity, you can help your mentee create a bear with the qualities most important to them! To find out about this activity geared toward elementary aged mentees, Click Build a Bear

Asking your mentee questions about his/her life can sometimes feel intrusive. The People Tree is a simple, inclusive and creative way to learn more about your mentee. This activity is for all ages. Click The People Tree

Are you curious about what is really important to your mentee but don't know how to ask? The Values Auction is an exciting activity that is sure to spark a meaningful discussion about what is most important to your mentee, and you may even be reminded of what you value most! This activity is best suited for a mentee in 4th – 12th grade. Click Values Auction, Values Auction Game Board, Values Auction Game Money

Interested in having an entertaining and thoughtful conversation with your mentee? If so, try posing a few of the curious queries in the Pick a Card activity, and be ready for an intriguing exchange. Click Pick a Card, Pick a Card Set 1, Pick a Card Set 2, More Fun Questions

If you have any questions about these activities or would like more suggestions, please contact your Mentor Director.
