EMPLOYEE TRAINING & COMPREHENSION APP – ED APP

Looking for an app that can assist you to train your employees and even test their comprehension? This app for construction focused courseware offers a range of concepts and skills from Heavy Machinery Operations to the safe use of Hazardous Material. Such training can be applied across a wide range of business types, keeping thousands of builders and managers across the world safe and knowledgeable in their day-to-day work.

The app that will assist you in this, www.edapp.com

You can assign courses in construction safety that will take the employees 30 seconds to read and answer the built-in quizzes.

Another great feature of this app is you can even edit the new hire orientation course they have to customize it to your company. Once that's done just assign who you want to get this and let the app roll out the New Hire Orientation process for you.